

The Story After successful social media and Kickstarter campaigns in 2011, Lenore and Anna of Three Babes Bakeshop saw their farm-fresh pies catching national attention.

The Opportunity They turned to BusinessAdvising.org to access expertise in business development and financial planning, and two of our advisors worked with them on budgeting, accounting, and reporting.

The Success Now their company is on a sustainable business path: they've seen an incredible 525% job growth, and are working toward their goals of opening a retail store and a production facility.
